FIRST TRIPLETS ENROLL IN GROVE SCHOOLS

New students at the Lemon Grove Junior High this week include three seventh grade girls, all named Naylor! Judith, Janet, and Joan caused excitement when they enrolled Monday morning from Wilson Junior High School in San Diego, since they are triplets, the first set to enroll in Lemon Grove Schools.

These three new reasons why students and teachers alike may look confused for a few days are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Nayler, 2323 Di Foss St., and the father is employed at the Grove Theater.

Lions to Combine Speakers'-Women's Night Thursday

It will be ladies' night this Thursday, March 10, when the Lemon Grove Lions Club holds its annual student speaker's contest. The group will hear three Helix high school students discuss this year's theme, "Safety Through Sane Living." From the three, one will be selected to represent the Lemon Grove club in subsequent district and regional speak-offs to pick a national winner.

Lions clubs throughout the United States sponsor similar speaking contests to encourage the youth of today's high schools to express themselves on current issues in a meaningful manner.

Late Contribution Puts Polio Near Record

A belated but welcome contribution of $125.00 was made to the March of Dimes by the Spin Inn Cafe on Imperial Avenue in Lemon Grove.

Ralph and Inez Fetters, operators of the cafe, collected the sum from a series of events which included a fish fry. Kenny and his band, a local Western outfit, contributed the music. Kenny also operates a cafe in Lemon Grove.

"This contribution is certainly welcomed," Lemon Grove Polio campaign chairman Henry Goldy said. "If we had a couple more such contributions we could pass last year's record."

The new total is nearly $4,600. Last year the total was $5,000.

B. W. L. Nominating Committee Named

The nominating committee for the Business Women's League of Lemon Grove was elected at the regular meeting Thursday evening, March 3, at 7 p.m. in Michael's Steak House. The committee consisted of the three immediate past presidents, Mrs. Dorothy Louer, chairman, Mrs. Mildred Huebsch, Mrs. Ina Leonosio. Mrs. Louer will present the slate of officers to the club at the next meeting at 12:30 p.m., March 17 at Michael's.

By-law changes were read for the second time and approved. It was then announced the B. W. L. installation dinner will be held April 30. Reservations will be taken in the near future.

Beautification chairman, Mildred Huebsch, read plans of the beautification committee saying that new sprinklers will be installed on the west side of the railroad tracks north of Broadway. Upon completion of installation new lawns will be planted.

Guest and prospective member present was Mrs. Jane Pullium whose husband operates "The Children's Bootery" featuring Edward's Shoes in Lemon Grove.

The next board meeting will be held in the home of secretary, Mrs. Evelyn Lauritzen, April 27 at 8 p.m.

St. John's Church Gives $100 to Swimming Pool

The Lemon Grove Swimming Pool Association met at St. John of the Cross Church, on Wednesday evening to discuss plans for the coming carnival to be held May 13 and 14, at the Rodeo Grounds of St. John's Church.

The association was given $100 donation by the church, which represented the proceeds from a recent cake sale.

Plans for the carnival will be announced at a later date.

School Board Members Go to Sacramento for Tax Relief

Proposed legislation as it affects education was discussed at the Monday meeting of the Lemon Grove School Board of Trustees. Special attention was given to AB 327, a proposed amendment to the present state school building aid law which would prevent the pyramiding of taxes in a school district. Members Armstrong, Cosby, and Mason will attend the Assembly education committee hearings on March 9 at Sacramento to endorse AB 327 passage. Judge Luther Hussey will also attend the hearings from Lemon Grove.

The board heard a report by S. K. Solleder, assistant superintendent, who has just returned from a recruitment trip to the Middle West. Solleder stated that many fine contacts had been made with well qualified teachers, and that many had indicated they would teach here next year. He cited the difficulties encountered in finding good teachers due to the national shortage and the recruitment of all districts, but assured the board that all vacancies here would be filled by September.

The board voted to allow three principals, Evelyn Lauritzen, Art Thomas, and Ben Schei, to attend the elementary principals' convention at Santa Rosa during spring vacation. Mrs. Ada Krimsky, at the same time, will attend the music supervisors' convention at Berkeley, and Ray Curry will attend the Council for Exceptional Children, a national group, at Long Beach.

Bids were opened on Public Employees Blanket Position Bond, and qualifications of insurance brokers of record were reviewed. The selection of such broker from among eligible candidates in Lemon Grove will be made at a later date.

Sunday has been set as a high attendance day at the First Baptist Church of Lemon Grove, where an eight day Revival Meeting has been conducted. This special series of services, with the pastor, Reverend Bob G. Rochelle, preaching, will continue through Sunday evening, March 13.

The church is making extensive plans to break all attendance records by having 401 in Sunday School at 9:30 Sunday morning.

Those who have not been able to attend these nightly meetings this week will want to avail themselves of these services, each evening at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. Sunday evening the meeting will be climaxed with Baptismal services.

Mother Has Baby Between Gasoline Islands in Filling Station

At least one Lemon Grove young mother believes in the sign on Bill Nienaber's Self Serve filling station.

An auto pulled into the station late Tuesday night, a man jumped out and asked to use the phone. He had waited too long, however, and his wife, Mrs. Tommy Reluccio, delivered him a son in the car.

Wally Price, an attendant, aided the mother while the husband contacted La Mesa Community Hospital.

The couple resides at 8325 Imperial Ave. The mother and child were later removed to the County Hospital, where both are reported to be in good condition.

Bill Nienaber, operator of the filling station, will present the youngster with a $25.00 savings bond as soon as the parents give him a name.

"It's the first time that's happened at my station," Nienaber said. "I think the youngster should have a bond in remembrance of the event."

"I guess I should have noticed that "Self Serve" sign before I drove in," the father chuckled.

Harry Larson to Address Homeland Democrats

"Are you being heard in Sacramento and Washington?" A formal discussion, considering this question and its appeal to common sense, will be analyzed by Harry P. Larson, well known lecturer and political science teacher of Junior College, Friday, at 8 p.m., in the Lemon Grove School, Room 10, at a program of the Homeland Democratic Club. Mr. Larson is also a member of the San Diego Teachers Legislative Committtee.

They are attracting many people interested in practical politics, throughout the Homeland area by emphasizing "How you can help to plan progressive laws to protect the welfare of people everywhere in 1955."

A short business meeting will be held promptly at 7:30 to 8 for members.

LILAC TIME MODEL IS 'LONG STEM' BEAUTY

Mrs. Don Lewis is one of the more lovely attractions at the Lemon Grove Woman's Juniors "Lilac Time" fashion show to be held Saturday. Walker-Scott will present the fashions.

By MARTI TITMAS

A treat for those attending the evening showing of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors' "Lilac Time" fashion show, will be the "Petits Fours," all ten of them straight from Paris. The picture above is one of them, Mrs. Don Lewis, looking over some of the door prizes and raffle prizes to be given away March 12, both in the afternoon and evening. Included will be two fishing trips for two to Ensenada, two days at the St. Cathryn Hotel on Catalina for two, two days at the Borrego Palms Hotel for two, an electric oven, and many more.

Mrs. Ralph Richardson, the "Lilac Lady," has been busy. Two more gift certificates have been given out, one from the Lemon Grove Tailors to Dr. Don Johnson, 2966 Buena Vista, and one from Till Top Drive In to Mrs. Vernon S. Mathews, 8329 Golden. There are just two more Fridays left until "Lilac Time." For reservations call Mrs. E. C. Kranch, HO 6-2012, for either the afternoon or evening showing.

Many of our local doctors and businessmen will be modeling the latest in men's wear from Walker Scott. Mr. Scott will commentate the evening performance. Doctors Robert Swenson, Don Johnson, Calvin Nichols and Mr. Henry Goldy, John Dail will be among those behind the footlights in the finest finery. Peggy Bellows, Kathy Cohenaur, Glen Zick, Larry Souzzini, Susan Kranch, Janice Mitchell, Jo Ann Hale, and Jean Anderson will show what the younger set will parade in come Easter.

Lilac and white will be the theme on March 12. The fashions are from Walker Scott. Models, music, and food will make your visit more enjoyable. You are helping Lemon Grove to own a swimming pool, by attending, so don't forget the date, March 12.

The Smell's on Us

There's definitely a reason for your paper "smelling" this week . . . but the aroma is supposed to be good.

The energetic girls of the Woman's Club Juniors, as everyone must certainly know by now, are holding their "Lilac Time" this Saturday.

One of the young ladies thought up the idea of having this issue of the Lemon Grove Review sprayed with lilac perfume to emphasize and dramatize the event. We agreed.

OPENING DATE EYED BY HOSPITAL AUXILIARY BOARD

A meeting of the board of directors and general committee chairmen, Grossmont Hospital Women's Auxiliary, has been announced by Mrs. J. Forster Couts, president, for Friday, March, 10 a.m., at 4750 Date Ave., La Mesa (La Mesa Educational Center).

"This will be a highly important meeting," said Mrs. Couts. "The time is growing short for all the work that must be done by the auxiliary prior to the opening of the hospital. As that long-looked for day nears, more and more responsibility will rest upon our shoulders, and we must be prepared to meet it."

On the agenda will be reports of area and committee chairmen; discussion of unfinished and new business, including plans for the three major fund-raising projects to be undertaken by the auxiliary during the current year: a spring garden tour, an all-day country fair, and a harvest ball—details of which will be announced later; and, a briefing by Mr. Louis Peelyon, Grossmont Hospital administrator.

Frances Palasik of Troop 309, Mrs. Lea Bentz, leader, came out on top for the Girl Scouts.

We are happy to again give Mrs. Rehberg of Troop 376 the Brownie award. They sold 327 bags of candy. Troop 96, Mrs. C. A. Olsen, leader, will receive the flag set for Girl Scout award. They sold 320 bags of candy.

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

There's a matter which has been nudging me for a great number of weeks . . . and because I have contributed to the nuisance, to some extent, I have tried to talk myself out of writing anything about it.

I, and my several employees park in front of my shop on Imperial. In all, 13 persons collect weekly paychecks from the Review office though all are not autoists and some are on a part time basis, but this does take away a considerable amount of parking space that might be used by some subscriber who feels inclined to pay his subscription bill.

This condition is aggravated by most of the employees of other business firms in the shopping district proper. You can tell the cars of employees, and also the business owners themselves, because parking begins to become congested at the hour stores open, when there is hardly a handful of shoppers stirring about.

That is certainly one thing we business people can get straightened out, and I promise that reforms will begin with my employees, and myself, this week.

Actually this thing crystalized Saturday when I decided that the time had come to air a couple of the ills of our shopping community. What decided me was a thing I noticed when I got into my car Saturday afternoon after it had been tying up parking since 7 a.m. The thing that decided me was a blob of vari-colored handbills stuck under my windshield wiper. There were six different ones, so help me. Along the gutters and in the streets were at least a hundred or more strewn about where angry motorists had thrown them.

That's what made me decide to do something about a thing that threatens to become an increasing problem to contribute to the ills of the business district.

While my shop had printed two of the different handbills distributed Saturday we could obviously only warn those who patronize us of the dangers inherent in continuing this practice. This we shall do.

Of course I have better control of employees parking than I do of the distribution of circulars but I promise I will warn every circular client that autoists do not enjoy returning from shopping in our community only to find a handful of papers stuffed either in or on their car. Nor do the shoppers who come down later in the day appreciate the cluttered streets when these handbills start to pile up in the gutters.

With the "junk" mailing privilege expiring at the end of March there will be a tremendous increase in the distribution of handbills and circulars.

I implore handbill users to reconsider any future such plans. Maybe house-to-house is a better deal.

It cost me $1.50 for a new windshield wiper arm and while I was having it installed, I never felt less like doing business with the firms who had just tried to get me to spend my dough with them.

Men's Club to Aid in Revitalizing Chamber

Three items were approved in the first meeting of the revitalized Men's Club Friday.

First, the club agreed that a strong chamber of commerce was desirable and unanimously voted to indorse activity that would lead to such an end. Such a recommendation was made by a committee headed by Forrest Dokken, telephone manager of the local district.

The club also agreed that the chamber should have joint meetings with service clubs of the community and ask for support and assistance in getting the chamber into an effective position. It was agreed that a $25 club membership should be set up to form a financial foundation upon which the club could grow. These things will be presented to the chamber board for approval as soon as a meeting can be called, Dr. Bob Swenson, chamber president said.

The Men's Club also asked its president, Bert Betts, to name a committee to fight the 38% increase in electric rates asked by the Gas and Electric Company of Lemon Grove residents.

A report was also made that the St. John of the Cross rodeo would be turned over to the Chamber of Commerce for community publicizing, and for profit to the chamber. No action was taken on the latter.

Local Picture Contest Starts This Month

Another picture contest, similar to that run last year, will be held by the Lemon Grove Camera Shop, 2848 Broadway.

There will be three prizes awarded each week, according to Bob Vaught, shop operator.

Prize winning pictures will be published in the Review, as before. The contest starts March 17 and runs for 12 weeks.

All amateurs are invited to take part. There is nothing to buy or guess. Any snapshot turned in for the purpose is eligible.

The suit of the Brookside Home Owners vs. the San Diego County, in the matter of the ditch on Fairway Drive, has come to the point where the submission of briefs by both sides will be presented. The suit is being held in Department No. 7 (Judge Joe Shell).

The presentation of the briefs will take 14 days, then three days for a reply. According to Louis Karp, council for the plaintiff, the suit should be settled about the first part of April. Should the Brookside group win the suit, then the problem of what to order will have to be considered. There will be the problem of sewage, pipes, filling the ditch and possibly a wire fence to be put up around the ditch.

Chance for Free Rose Bowl Events For Local Residents

Lemon Grove may join in and help select a theme for the 67th annual Tournament of Roses Parade to be held in Pasadena on New Year's Day, following an invitation by Dr. A. L. Gerrie, president of the Tournament of Roses Association.

The person who sends in the theme suggestion that is finally selected will become Pasadena's honor guest on New Year's Day with tickets for the parade, the guest luncheon, and for the Rose Bowl, for himself and companion.

It is desirable to suggest a theme which may be adapted by float designers in building all flower entries for the Tournament of Roses Parade. It should be general enough to allow 60 different interpretations.

The theme this past year was "Familiar Sayings in Flowers." In previous years the themes have included "Famous Books," "Melodies," "Poems," "Dreams of the Future," "Romance," "Golden Legends," "Fairy Tales," "Holidays," "Childood Memories," "History," "States and Nations" and many others.

Theme suggestions may be mailed in on postcards or in letters to Tournament of Roses, Theme Contest, 181 South Los Robles Ave., Pasadena.

Participants may send in more than one suggestion. If there are several with the same suggestion that is chosen, the one bearing the earliest posmark will be declared the winner. The contest will close March 31.

YARDSTICK FOR DELINQUENCY PREVENTION OFFERED

A means of measuring how much individual communities are doing to prevent and correct juvenile delinquency is provided in the article on "Children in Trouble," in the March issue of the Ladies' Home Journal. A panel of experts from many fields: schools, churches, juvenile court, social agencies and women's clubs in their discussion of the causes of delinquency and its means of prevention explode the myth of a simple solution.

"I have found no single article which so clearly explains the myriad problems which lead a child into delinquency, and which offers concrete suggestions of what the community can do to effectively combat these problems," says Charles T. G. Rogers, chief probation officer of San Diego County. The plight of the abused, neglected and abandoned child is also discussed and the experts point out that this type of child may become delinquent unless he receives understanding help and is kept separate from delinquent children, Rogers said.

According to Rogers, no one should attempt to discuss causes or cures for delinquency without reading the article, which, he said, "explodes the theory of a single simple solution to delinquency and dependency."

The article offers a ten-point program for the prevention of delinquency. Rogers, in comparing services available in San Diego County to the yardstick, stated that we rank far above many areas in the United States. San Diego is in need of expanded mental hygiene services, school guidance facilities, and badly needs more foster homes, Rogers said. The local probation office needs additional staff, if it is to provide efficient supervision of children on probation, the probation chief said.

The greatest immediate need in the community, according to Rogers, is an adequate shelter home for the temporary care of children who have been removed from unsuitable homes and are awaiting placement. At the present time the county is exploring the means for establishing such a home, he said.

!THE SHOW'S THE THING!

CinemaScope goes to the circus in "Ring of Fear," the new Wayne-Fellows production for Warner Bros. which opens Thursday at the Grove Theatre. Clyde Beatty, Pat O'Brien, Mickey Spillane (making his screen debut), and the entire Clyde Beatty three-ring circus help provide the thrills in this tale of a homicidal fanatic who escapes from the police and joins said circus as ringmaster. Besides the story-plot, entertainment presents itself in vast amounts as you can watch such amazing stars, perform their dazzling feats, as the George Hanneford bareback riding family, high-wire walkers, daring trampoline acts, trapeze artists, herds of performing elephants, side shows, clowns, horses, and many, many others. The co-feature is "Target Earth."

Doris Day, Robert Cummings and Phil Silvers romp to the tune of ten new top song numbers from the pen of Sammy Fain and Paul Francis Webster in Warner Bros. CinemaScope frolic, "Lucky Me," opening Sunday at the Grove Theatre.

The titles of the songs in the WarnerColor film are: "The Superstition Song," "Men," "Parisian Pretties," "High Hopes," "Memo to the Moon," "I Speak to the Stars," "Blue Bells of Broadway," "Love You Dearly," "I Wanna Sing Like an Angel and Dance Like a Devil," and "Lucky Me."

The ease with which an enemy force could ship a nuclear bomb into any United States port with annihilating results is dramatically presented in "Port of Hell" (companion feature with "Lucky Me"), an Allied Artists production starring Fallbrook's own Wayne Morris, Dane Clark and San Diego's talented little Dee Ann Johnston. Teeming Los Angeles harbor was the location used to film "Port of Hell."—B.T.

LAW IN ACTION

DID I SIGN THAT?

No one else signs his name exactly like you. In signing your name, you start a chain of legal events that are hard to stop.

1. Be sure you know what you sign and how it will bind you. Always keep a copy and don't let anybody talk you out of your copy.

2. Most of us buy goods on time on a conditional sale contract where the goods are not yours until you make all payments. Miss one, and the seller may take the goods back and keep your past payments.

3. You may also buy personal property—car, appliances, livestock, or machinery—subject to a chattel mortgage. "Chattel" merely means the things are not real estate. You pledge them to secure the debt. You own the car, say, and mortgage it to secure your debt.

After you sign an installment contract, you may want to pay up the balance and save interest. You may not do so unless your contract says so in writing.

4. Formalities: The law may call for formalities when you sign certain papers. For example, at least two witnesses must sign a will in the presence of each other and the will-maker. Note the signing; you may have to tell about it in court.

5. Leases: When you rent a home, your lease should set out what rent you are to pay, how long you must rent, what notice you or your landlord must give to end the lease, and who is to pay for any damage to the place. Do you know the terms of your lease?

6. Earnest Money Contracts: Some home buyers sign an earnest money "receipt." Some think they are just signing a down payment receipt to show they mean business. But these papers may be contracts, not receipts. They say what property you have bought, how much you will pay for it, what evidence of title and what kind of a deed you will get, when and what you must pay, and when you are to get possession. These contracts are enforceable in court.

7. Partnership obligations: To sign a paper may bind others to act or pay money. One partner is liable with his partner for acts, contracts, and debts arising out of their business.

8. Co-sign a note or endorse a check, and you may have to make it good. "Just a formality"—but it's your money, if the check has rubber in it.

9. Read EVERYTHING in any document, fine print and all. You will not be able to enforce a word of mouth promise, if it contradicts what has been typed or printed.

10. Check the details: What about dates, prices, names, and conditions? What the paper says, not what you thought it said, may bind you. Insert language clearly stating what you want, and make it as clear as possible.

County Students to Vie for B. of A.'s $17,600 Prizes

In virtually every high school in Southern California, committees of teachers will be putting their heads together this month to pick the 1,500 senior students for recognition under Bank of America's 1955 Achievement Awards program.

The top 60 will get cash awards, ranging from $100 to $1,000 each; 525 students will receive gold cups; and 1,500 will get certificates of achievement. There are 222 high schools—public, private, and parochial—participating in the southland.

Of the $35,600 in cash awards to be distributed in the statewide program, Southern California's winning students' share will total $17,600.

Students will first win certificates and cups on individual school level. Selected school candidates will then compete with candidates of other schools at the zone level. All zone winners will receive cash awards. Next May, in the finals, zone winners will compete among themselves in oral interviews to determine the amount of their cash awards. Judges on both zone and final levels will be civic leaders.

Awards will be made in four general fields of study: vocational arts, fine arts, liberal arts, and science and mathematics. The object of the program is to "bring recognition and reward to outstanding students who show the greatest promise of future success and service to society."

Local Lions Club Schedules Fairest of Fair Preliminary

Sure sign of Spring is the announcement made this week by Hap Van Nice, program chairman of the Lions Club, to the effect this organization will sponsor the Fairest of the Fair queen pageant for the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley areas.

The Fairest of the Fair who takes on the added title of "Miss Con-Tour" will reign over the Southern California Exposition at Del Mar, June 24 through July 4 and will be this county's official hostess for he next year.

Selection of this area's candidates for the title will come during the general meeting of the Lions Club, Thursday evening, May 5, at Michael's Restaurant.

Entry blanks now are available at L. G. Camera Shop and the Spring Valley Pharmacy.

Girls between the ages of 17 through 22 are eligible if they are single. Judging will be on beauty, personality, charm and poise.

Added feature of the event will be the showing of a new technicolor film, with sound, showing vacation and recreation facilities in the county. It is furnished by the San Diego Convention and Tourist Bureau, co-sponsor of the queen pageant with the exposition.

Worthy prizes are offered to the ultimate winner. These include $300 cash award, an air trip to the California State Fair for two, and an 11-day expense paid stay at Del Mar for two.

P-TA to Sponsor Advance Sale of Exposition Tickets

A county-wide sale of reduced admission tickets for this summer's Southern California Exposition and County Fair at Del Mar, June 24 through July 4, will begin late this month, Paul T. Mannen, secretary-manager, announced this week.

This advance sale will be sponsored by units of the Ninth District Parent-Teachers Assn. Tickets will sell for the special price of 50c. A portion of this amount will be divided by participating units and the San Diego Children's Dental Center. Children's tickets also will be sold at the rate of 25c each.

The regular admission price will be 85c, Mannen said. It will go into effect June 15 when the P-TA completes its advance sale.

It will not be compulsory for units to participate in this project, Mrs. J. Allen Hodges, president of Ninth District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, said. However, it is anticipated most units will take part. There are 166 units in the county with a membership in excess of 70,000.

One hundred thousand adult tickets and 25,000 children's tickets will go on sale. A similar program has been in effect the past five years at the National Orange Show at San Bernardino. Last year, P-TA units in that district sold 100,593 adult and 16,043 children's tickets. Participating units received $5,430.50 for their efforts.

Mrs. Gregory Gets Helix P-TA Award

Mrs. John Gregory, resident of Lemon Grove, was awarded the Honorary Life Membership from Helix High School P-TA for her outstanding service to the school for the past three years. She is the present secretary of the organization. The presentation, which was made by Mrs. Jens Hutchens, was particularly unique because Mrs. Gregory's family shared in the honors by being with her — John, her husband, who has also been of great service to the school; Dick, her son, who is a senior at Helix; and Sue, her daughter, who is in the fourth grade at Monterey Heights school where Mrs. Gregory is also active.

Stock Will Give Showy Color and Spicy Fragrance

A successful planting of stock is a joy to behold and a valid reason for the steady popularity of this very acceptable bedding plant. Combined with a long blooming period and a heavy mass of color is a heavenly breath of fragrance that is spicy and sweet but not overpowering in its scent.

Success with stock is dependent upon the following few simple rules. First, the seedling plant should be in a good state of growth as stunted plants will never develop correctly. Soil should be loose and well drained and preferably slightly alkaline. Location should be sunny and with a south or west exposure if planted against a fence, wall or building. Immediately after planting, the soil should be pressed firmly around each plant and a thorough watering given. Watering should be by thorough soakings with the water directed at the roots of the plants. Overhead sprinkling will tend to topple the plants as they develop. Later as the plants develop they will stretch out one central stem. When this stem is about six or seven inches tall it should be snapped halfway to cause a branching out from the base. This will give a profusion of short sturdy stems and a longer season of bloom than if the single stem was allowed to develop.

Regular spraying should be made with a contact spray for aphids and leaf miners. In light loose soil it may be necessary to support the plants as they come into blooming size.

Stock are universally preferred in the full double form but the very best strains available today will never give a 100% yield of doubles. For this reason sufficient plants should be set so that the singles can be pulled as they develop. As the single flowers develop earliest and are easily recognized by their long pencil lead sized bud, compared to the short stubby later developing double flowers, the job of weeding them out is not to difficult.

SECOND ANNUAL DACHSHUND MATCH TO BE HELD THIS MONTH

Entries from the Lemon Grove area are expected in the second sanctioned San Diego Dachshund Club match to be held March 27, at the American Legion Hall, 5th and C Streets, Chula Vista. Mrs. J. C. Bigler, trophy chairman, has compiled an impressive list of prizes for regular as well as junior showmanship classes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Hirschman, Berkmanor Kennels, Sepulveda, California, will be judges.

Registrations may be mailed in or made at the door from 10 a.m. until 12 p.m. Registration fees are $1.00. Show time is from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m.

Grossmont High School District Cuts Insurance Cost $9,000

Award of a contract for fire insurance coverage of the property of the district was made Monday evening by the board of trustees of the Grossmont U.H.S. District. The contract was awarded the firm of Cosgrove, Dunn, Carter and Higgins with coverage of $4,570,000 in the Insurance Company of North America and the Caledonia Insurance Company. The average rate was approximately $0.375. The board of trustees at the same time cancelled all existing policies. The contract represents a saving of over $9,000 in comparison with the coverage now in force.

This action by the board of trustees culminates a six month study of the fire insurance problem in the district. The major development in the fire insurance market as it affects school districts, according to Harold G. Hughes, assistant superintendent, is the emergence during the past year of companies willing to underwrite school properties as significantly reduced rates. This has resulted in a competitive situation.

Blue Ribbon or Red MAYFAIR Meat is Best

Mrs. Kenneth Perkins is a post office employee and she lives at 7437 Senecca Place in La Mesa. As a parent of two fine boys, Edward 17 and Michael 13, she chooses Mayfair Market for "variety."

"There's never a problem in planning what to buy for my hungry family," she said. "Everything at Mayfair is laid out in such a fashion that making a choice is easy."

"Let's see now. Why do we like Mayfair? Well, check cashing, parking, convenience, prices, quality and variety of merchandise."

Jack and Patsy West—he's a baker for Weber Bread—wrapped the whole list of pretty compliments up for us. The couple resides at 7566 Lemon Ave., and have two young men, Jerry 11, and Mike, 7.

Every week is bargain week at Mayfair meat departments. Main reason is that you choose the quality you want and pay for only the quality you choose. Because of special purchases, however, prices are being reduced for this week on every cut from t-bones to boiling plate.

Our Blue Ribbon Beef, all tagged for your easy choosing, is selected for top flavor and tenderness from scientifically fed choice beef. It can be further identified by the tiny fat granules which gives it added flavor. Never, under any circumstances, do we mix in any other grade with the Blue Ribbon choice cuts.

Our Red Ribbon budget beef is for economy. It has a high protein content and because it is leaner than Blue Ribbon there is less waste. This grade is greatly improved by moist heat cooking, which we recommend.

Whichever grade you choose you'll admit—the savings are real and welcome.

Mrs. Edward Lawler, whose husband is the superintendent of the American Housing Guild, with her 14-month-old daughter, Diane, has a two-fold choice for shopping at Mayfair.

"We like the selection which is always wide enough to meet our needs, and I especially like the convenient household goods department. The market meets nearly all of our household needs." The family resides at 3634 Suffolk Dr.

Mrs. Charles Edens, 3485 Sweetwater Rd., wife of a navy man, together with their son Charles, 9, are regular patrons of the Lemon Grove Mayfair Market.

"We naturally enjoy the convenience of Mayfair," she said. "It doesn't seem like work at all, shopping in such a wonderful market."
